

CITYBUSINESS AROUND TOWN

PEOPLE

Awards

John G. Sanders and Michael J. Stack of the Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development received the 2007 Charles E. Dunbar Jr. Career Service Award, sponsored by the Louisiana Civil Service League.

The Louisiana Bar Foundation will present Thomas F. Daley,

Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal in Gretna, the 2007 Distinguished Jurist Award, Harry S. Hardin III of Jones Walker the 2007 Distinguished Attorney Award, and Cynthia A. Samuel of Tulane University Law School with the 2007 Distinguished Professor Award.

William Johnson, research director at WDSU TV, has received the Advertising Club of New Orleans Communications Support Person of the Year award.

Thomas F. Daley

Harry S. Hardin III

Cynthia A. Samuel

William Johnson

president, regulatory officer, Sue Tucker to vice president and Jean-Guy Celestin to vice president.

Education

Ursuline Academy has named John E. Gabriel high school principal.

Xavier University has named Kimberly Reese director of alumni relations.

Health care

Fairway Medical Center has named Colleen Gollnick chief operations officer.

The Louisiana Environmental Health Association elected James D. Miller president of the board, Jeff Jackson president-elect, Judy McCleary vice president, Steve Aguilard past president, Jodi G. Miller secretary and Chris Mayeux treasurer.

Hotels

The Royal Sonesta Hotel New

Jean-Guy Celestin

John E. Gabriel

Kimberly Reese

Colleen Gollnick

ReNew Orleans

PHOTO BY FRANK LINMAN

SDT has roots in St. Bernard

SDT Waste and Debris planted 40 cypress trees on the neutral ground of Paris Road in Chalmette recently as part of St. Bernard Parish President Craig Taffaro's beautification program for business corridors. From left: Luis Goerrra, landscape architect, Sidney B. Torres IV, SDT president, Taffaro, and St. Bernard Parish Councilman George Cavignac.

CityBusiness will run photos of people, businesses and organizations who are helping New Orleans recover. To submit photos or suggestions for ReNew Orleans, call Jennifer Hall at 293-8203 or jennifer.hall@csnogg.com.